

4-5 April 2020

Tinaburra Foreshore, Yungaburra

Information and Expression of Interest for Stall Holders

The Yungaburra Triathlon will be held on 5 April 2020 and will provide an opportunity for competitors to compete in a different event Triathlon on the picturesque foreshore of Lake Tinaroo. The Afghanistan Avenue of Honour at Tinaburra provides a fitting backdrop for competitors who help raise funds for Australian soldiers who are physically or psychologically wounded. In its sixth year, the Triathlon draws together competitors from across the local and state triathlon network to participate in this high quality event. We expect up to 2,000 competitors and spectators attending this event over the course of the weekend.

Tablelands Regional Council, in partnership with an organising committee, will again be organising and hosting this successful event.

Road closures will be in place on Sunday and it is a requirement that stall holders will arrive onsite before the road closures start and stay on site until the roads are reopened. The race check-in will be open on Saturday afternoon and stall holders are welcome to set up their stall and start trading on Saturday.

Stall requirements

Tables and chairs can be supplied at no cost. Other equipment is the exhibitor's responsibility. Bump in will be from 1pm Saturday 4 April 2020 and the exhibitor agrees to leave their stall erected overnight to be ready to trade by 5am Sunday morning 5 April 2020. Security will be provided to onsite overnight. Table dimensions are approximately 736(w) x 736(h) x 1835(l)mm. There is no access to power so exhibitors must provide their own generator if required (noise permitting).

The Triathlon presents an excellent opportunity for stall holders to access a large Tablelands audience. There is a $50 flat fee to host a stall at the event.

Insurance

All exhibitors are responsible for their own insurances and the Yungaburra Triathlon organisers accept no responsibility for failure to hold adequate insurance cover for this event. You must provide a copy of your certificate of currency for public liability with your Expression of Interest. Please contact the Events Manager if you do not have insurance cover.

Cancellation

Advise the Event Manger if you are no longer able to participate.
